From My Heart

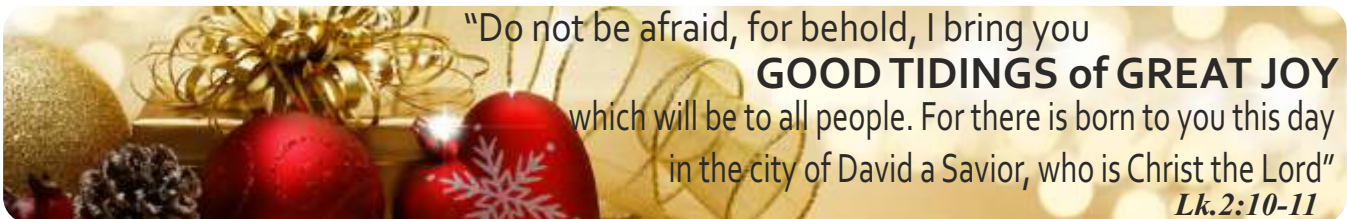

Dearly Beloved,

Merry Christmas in the name of our resurrected Lord Jesus Christ!

In this last month of the year, we are thrilled to see that God has faithfully accomplished everything He had promised. Let your heart be filled with gratitude for His love, grace and faithfulness. Make this month a month of praise and worship. Note down everything He has done for you and start to praise Him. He alone is worthy to be praised.

This is the time for you to do something for God and His Kingdom. Increase your hunger and thirst for more of God and His manifestations through you. Don't be satisfied with ankle deep, knee deep, or waist deep levels of anointing. Jump into the swimming level. You will catch great multitudes of fish for the Lord. Greater manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit will draw multitudes to Christ. Keep growing in your faith and in Christian virtues. Don't stay in your present level and get distracted in small issues. Rise up and shine!

God's heart is longing and seeking for a person who would make a wall and stand in the gap before Him on behalf of the land. We are planning to have satellite centers all over India to extend our regular fasting and prayer in the month of January from 14th to 16th, 2021. If you can gather as a group in a hall or in a church or even at your house you can be a part of this nation-wide fasting prayer. We will see the tremendous outpouring of the Spirit in a tangible way. For more details contact our office.

Beloved, your final victory is already decreed by the King of the universe. All the kingdoms of the earth will be delivered to your Father God. All the enemies will be driven out into eternal fire. You will enjoy total freedom from all tortures, pains and sufferings. You will experience the very peace of God and eternal bliss, peace and joy. Every promise and prophetic word ever given from the creation of man will be fulfilled. None of His words will ever fail (Jos.21:45). Take heart! March on! Be bold in your offensive war to win the world with your mighty Champion, the Holy Ghost NOW!

Pray for all our programs and also for me and my wife, for our ageing parents, as well as for our leaders and staff. May the Lord Almighty establish your territory and make you a blessing to the nations. Be the head and never again the tail. Lend to nations and never borrow again. Let the blessings run before you and overtake you, in Jesus Name!

Your Loving Brother

TEAM MAN

Prophet Ezekiah Francis

Friendly persons who team up with others are attractive persons. Epaphroditus was a noted team man, and that was his attraction.

We have seen Epaphroditus so far as Paul's own brother, fellow laborer and fellow soldier.

We have seen his total commitment to his God, to his leader and to the Church. In this chapter, we will meditate on his team spirit.

Team-man

Epaphroditus was not a loner. He was not satisfied with his relationship with God alone. He also was deeply related to Paul and to his Macedonian church.

He was not an independent minister but interdependent man. He had his local church, and he committed himself to that church. He was longing for all of them and was distressed when his church was anxious about his health (Phil.2:26). He wanted his church not to worry about him. He was worthy of their trust and interceded for them.

As we have seen in the previous chapter, he submitted to his leader and served him sacrificially. For Epaphroditus, Christ was in no way separated from His leaders and the Church.

He saw Christ and the Church as the Head and the Body.

Head and Body

We all know Christ as The Head and the Church as His Body, but unfortunately we don't practically apply it in our lives. Some of us love the Lord Jesus Christ but are not able to love the believers freely. It is a contradiction. It is like saying, I like that brother's head but not his body. How is it possible? If one member of your body refused to connect with other members and wanted to connect directly only with the head, what would happen? Some believers live such a contradictory lifestyle. Though Christ is our Head, He has given His five-fold ministries as official leaders of His Church. In the human body, all our communication organs are in our head: our eyes to see, ears to hear, nose to smell, mouth to speak, etc. Likewise Christ, the Head of the Church, communicates His message primarily through His leadership. The one who obeys the Head of the Church obeys the leadership that He appoints. This is the three dimensional relationship we have studied earlier: Relationship with Jesus, relationship with God-appointed leaders and relationship with His Church. A true man of God lives this well balanced life.

Living for a leader

While commending Epaphroditus, Paul says how he came close to death for the work of Christ and mentions how he ministered to Paul's need. In short, Epaphroditus risked his life both for God and for Paul. It is easy to live for Jesus, but it is hard to live for His leaders. Epaphroditus took an oath to live for God's faithful leader and his God. He didn't see Christ and Paul as different persons. If you want to grow in your relationship with God, you must also grow in your relationship with His ministers and with His church.

It took some time for me to get this revelation in my early days. In those days, I always longed to be alone in prayer and have fellowship with God personally. For me, relationship with Christ was all that mattered. I was not keen to pray with others or to spend time with others. Thank God He opened my eyes. I began to understand that it is not possible to connect with the Head without His Body, the Church. I clearly saw that Christ and His Church are one.

This made me a team-person. I am no more an independent man. I have a team of leaders and counselors who work with me. Of course, my relationship with Christ is still my first priority, and I long to hear God's voice and do His bidding.

Whenever I hear from God, I share with my team and seek their counsel and confirmations. Berachah Prophetic Ministries which God has given me is not a single man's ministry but a corporate ministry. The brightness of many candles is far brighter than the brightness of a single candle. I have found out that my devotees will not help my spiritual growth. As the secular superstars have their fan clubs, every successful minister will have his own fans. But I know the danger of being surrounded by such fans. They know how to flatter a leader, not to correct him. Unless somebody dares to point out our mistakes and weak spots we can never improve. I have seen many examples of this in my years of ministry experience. As I move with senior men and women of God, I see the importance of the corporate anointing in our seminars.

This revelation made Epaphroditus accountable both to his church and to his spiritual overseers. He submitted fully to his leadership. The Church sent him to Paul and he submitted. He also met the needs of his leader in all his sufferings.

Do not stand alone

Beloved child of God, Who is your spiritual leader? Who is your overseer? Who ministers to you God's message for your personal life? Are you under the covering of an anointed leader? Is your life an open book to them? Do you give account to them of your life and ministry? If you can't give me a clear answer, I fear you are already in the snare of the devil. Your independent lifestyle may lead you into a great fall.

Please don't get into the mindset that says, 'I am better than others'. In the time of Elijah, God kept seven thousand faithful people who didn't bow their knees to Baal. God has His uncompromising remnant in every generation. Please connect with them for your own safety. Never trust your flattering devotees and blind fan club. Open your ears to spiritual matured leaders.

Submit to one another, especially to God's five-fold ministry. Satan doesn't like you to be submissive. Resist Him.

In the Early Church, no one stood alone. They fought together, preached together, prayed together, and they were persecuted together. When there was a doctrinal conflict in the Antioch church, Paul and Barnabas didn't run to their prayer closet to hear God alone but they went to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem (Ac.1:14; 2:11, 42-48; 4:23-31; 5:40).

Samson and David

Samson was one of the strongest men among the Bible heroes. He had unusual strength and might by the Holy Spirit yet he failed miserably. What is the reason? He was a loner. He stood alone, and when he fell, there was no one to lift him up or help him up (Eccl.4:10).

On the contrary think about David. He was also a mighty warrior. He had a moral failure like Samson, but after his fall he was beautifully restored back to God. He became a mighty psalmist and is still blessing the world. God commended him as a man after His own heart. What was his secret? David had many mighty men around him (2.Sa.23). God's prophets also were with him to correct him and to set right him (2.Sa.12). Because of that, he could finish his race victoriously (Ac.13:36).

Dear friends, this is the main secret of Epaphroditus. God wants to make you like Epaphroditus. Prayerfully select your local church and your spiritual leader. Then submit to them as a beloved brother, sincere helper and life-giving soldier.

As the leader is, so is the Church. You can see the same commitment of Epaphroditus in his church also. See what Paul says about his church: "And not only as we had hoped, but first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us by the will of God" (2.Co.8:5). First commitment to God! Second commitment to His leaders! This is the secret of successful ministers. The attraction and the specialty of Epaphroditus were seen in his congregation. May the Lord make you like Epaphroditus!

Reading the book of the law

Nehemiah's knowledge of God's covenant gave him the burden that all Israelites must know the book of the covenant to live a victorious life. Today's problem is leaders are filled with revelation about God's covenant but every believer must be filled with the revelation of the New Covenant. See what happened to people when they read the book of the law.

Now all the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded Israel. ...Then he read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.....And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.helped the people to understand the Law; and the people stood in their place. So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the Lord is your strength" (Neh. 8:1-11).

Ezra the scribe brought the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded Israel. He read from it, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law. From morning to mid-day he read the book. All listened. And along with Ezra, all the leaders, Levites read the distinctly from the book and they gave the sense and helped them to understand the reading.

They didn't just read for the sake of tradition. They explained the law, statutes, covenant and covenant blessing to the people. Till that time, they lived like an ordinary people. After they listened to the book of the law, they understood what kind of people they are and how God delivered them from Egypt and the miracles He performed for His people. All the people wept, when they heard the words. Yes! This makes the difference. God said, my people perish because of the lack of knowledge (Hos.4:6).

This is what Berachah Prophetic ministries is doing all these years, preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ and to make all see what is the fellowship of mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ (Eph.3:8-9). Hallelujah!

Beloved, you are covenant people, living in the better covenant. Embrace that covenant and meditate it. When you understand the covenant, you will not live an ordinary life, you will enjoy the covenant blessing and your inheritance. Like Nehemiah understand the covenant and teach the people and bring them into their possession and covenant blessings.

- ★ Praise the Lord, The Supernatural Living Seminar touched me and I could hear God in every session. Prophetess Benita Francis' message on using tongue efficiently and we are carriers of God's presence blessed me immensely. Prophet Ezekiah Francis' session was awesome. I could literally feel the Holy Spirit breaking me and God's loving presence hovering over me. Thank you Holy Spirit. - ★ Praise the Lord, I am blessed beyond measures by this Supernatural Living Seminar. I could hear God and got stirred up in my spirit. I am so thankful to God for these sessions. I could climb high in the supernatural realm by God's grace, through the prophetic message on God's Kind by Prophet Ezekiah Francis. Glory to Jesus! Thanking God for Prophets Ezekiah Francis and Benita Francis, Bro. Alex and the entire Berachah Team. - Elijah Holyspirit
- ★ I am excited to share my testimony. I am working as Assistant Professor in a medical college at Chennai. Basically from a different faith, both me and my husband got baptized and accepted Jesus as our personal savior since many years. I received anointing during my college days and after that on my life path I faced troubles in family and work places. Being stressed I couldn't read Bible. After hearing about Prophet Ezekiah Francis, started to watch his prophetic messages in YouTube with the great excitement since the month of July, and my prayer life started changing, could read Bible regularly and since then praying for the blessing of speaking in tongues. Praise God! I could attend the Online Supernatural Living Seminar (7th to 9th Nov 2020). During the worship time of the Sunday Evening session, I experienced Holy Ghost anointing and continued to speaking in tongues throughout the session, which was my heart cry for years. Even before the Sunday evening session I prayed like Jacob 'I will not let Him go unless He bless me' (Gen. 32:26). Our Great God hears our Prayer! During worship I really couldn't control myself and speaking in tongues. Fully drenched in Holy Ghost anointing throughout Prophetess Benita Francis' prophetic session. Thank you Jesus. Praise be to the Lord, Our God Savior! Blood of Jesus Christ forgiving our sins and giving us His Peace and Eternal life. Amen. - Dr.Indumathi
- ★ Praise the Lord! Just want to share my testimony to glorify God. During Supernatural Living Seminar, I was lead to sow a small seed offering of Rs. 500 to BPM via online. Just in a week time, two of my friends who doesn't know each other called me and each of them promised to sow a seed of Rs.5000/- into our ministry. When I was wondering how come suddenly these two people wanted to sow, I got reminded of the small seed offering that I sowed and the scripture "He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward." (Mt. 10:41).. Praise God for BPM!. Glory to God! - Wilson Raj

In Christ, the food for your spirit man is God's Word. Only meditating on it constantly will renew your mind and produce faith to live in Christ. As you walk in the truth of God's Word, you manifest more and more of Christ in you. This is the secret of living in victory, health, holiness, power and authority

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS

Rev. Benita Francis

The year 2020 puzzled humanity. Fear gripped the globe. Life was suddenly interrupted by worldwide lockdowns. Securities crumbled. Jobs were lost. Many found themselves suddenly thrown into torturing uncertainty. Bad news abounded. IT'S TIME FOR GOOD NEWS!!!

As the Lord JESUS warned me, 2020 was a year of break-DOWN, but also of break-THROUGH for those who were wise enough to seek and obey God's guidance. Remember, the star announcing the birth of the Savior of the world could be seen by anyone who would just lift up his eyes to the skies: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a light has shined" (Isa.9:2). The light shone upon all - and yet, only a few wise men were curious enough to set out on a journey to find the new-born King (Mt.2:1-2)!

Have you been wise enough to lift up your eyes out of the circumstances around you and fix them upon heaven, where your real citizenship is, and from where you eagerly wait for the Risen Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ (Phil.3:20)? Have you used this idle lockdown time as a special, precious gift for studying God's Word and pressing toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ

Jesus (Phil.3:14)?

Interestingly, the wise men from the East went directly to the palace, expecting that any King, any deliverer, any Savior should come from the governing authorities. Isn't it interesting how even God-led wise men still use human reason in their search for a solution to their quest?!?!? And yes, King Herod showed himself very interested. After enquiring from all the chief priests and scribes, he knew that Bethlehem was the prophesied birthplace of the Christ. See what happened:

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also" (Mt.2:7-8)

What a beautiful scene! Seemingly, King Herod was happy about the prospect of a Savior, a solution. Internally, however, he was full of fear, insecurity and wrath at the supposed 'competitor' and 'threat' to his throne! So using a religious guise, he claimed to be eager to worship the new-born King! Wooooow!!!

Again shockingly, the wise men don't seem to have understood or discerned the real intentions of King Herod. They happily followed his instructions and went to Bethlehem:

9 When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was (Mt.2:9)

Let me ask you a question. Did they really need to take the ‘detour’ through the palace? Did you notice that the same star kept going before them, perfectly guiding them to Bethlehem? And not just to Bethlehem where King Herod sent them - the star STOOD OVER where the young Child was. What a clear guidance!!! Guidance even to the point of a specific address, and that too, not a house, but a stable!!!

Of course, no wise man would have expected a King to be born outside the palace, or at least outside the capital city. And yet, this humble manger in a stable, surrounded by innocent animals, was God’s perfect choice above the glamorous palace full of cunning craftiness! Be careful: Never allow your human expectations to fool you away from God’s real Presence!

Let me add here a small Christmas-anecdote: One of our leaders’ daughters tried to convince her dad to allow a dog inside the house. Her answer to his refusal was: “Why, daddy? Even our Lord Jesus was born in an animal house!” GOOD point!!! Well, so our wise men finally found the right place:

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

11 And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh (Mt.2:10-11)

Have you offered your gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the King, even when there was absolutely no evidence He would ever do anything to ‘earn’ your praises? These wise men offered their most precious possessions simply on one basis: The heaven-inspired revelation that JESUS IS KING!

They didn’t expect any favor in return. After worshipping him, they would go back to their nation. They simply brought their worship and their substance. And yet, their reward was much more precious than any favor any human authority could ever give them! Their reward was first of all a tremendous spiritual joy and satisfaction:

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy (Mt.2:10)

To those who diligently seek Him, God’s spiritual guidance brings exceedingly great joy - and as you know, the JOY of the LORD is our strength (Neh.8:10)! This Christmas and beyond, as you seek and follow His guidance, joy and strength will be the natural outflow of your life!

Yet there was still another reward, and this second reward of their spiritual hunger and diligence actually saved their very lives:

12 Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way (Mt.2:12)

Hallelujah!!! As you seek Him, His voice and your spiritual discernment may lead you in strange, unexpected but always glorious ways!

So why not YOU bring YOUR BIRTHDAY GIFT to YOUR beloved KING JESUS at this time where Christians around the world celebrate His birthday!?! I have seen His joy and delight when we take care of one of His least ones (Mt.19:21; 24:40,45; Mk.10:21)! Your gifts to Him for His poor sheep will definitely be greatly needed and appreciated (Mk.14:7).

Will 2020 be a SPECIAL Christmas? It may well be... For this Christmas, many nations have already announced strict lockdown measures. Many may sit alone, destitute, maybe locked down in some old age home or hospital, forbidden from being with their loved ones. Imagine their pain! Imagine their fear and horror!

Every year, Christmas is the most suicide-prone time of the year because lonely people can't bear their loneliness anymore; parents worry about money to satisfy their children's Christmas wishes; family tensions arise during festive visits; marriage quarrels intensify as more time is spent together. I am also convinced that satan, hating the idea of celebrating the birth of his Destroyer, works overtime to steal, kill and destroy - exactly in this time where we celebrate JESUS coming to give us life more abundantly (Jn.10:10).

So definitely, many people suffer more on the supposedly joyous occasion of Christmas than at other times of the year. How can YOU make their Christmas special?

First of all, you yourself must keep hope and joy, no matter what the circumstances may be. I strongly feel God wants this Christmas to be a SPECIAL CELEBRATION as we trust His Word:

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me (Ps.23:4)

Like in Luke 1:79, many may sit in darkness and the shadow of death, desperately awaiting some comfort and consolation. Praise God, by His Spirit in you, YOU can be their comforter (2.Co.7:13; Phil.2:1)! Praise God, the message of Christmas is and will forever be the same:

10 Then the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you GOOD TIDINGS of GREAT JOY which will be to all people.

11 For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord” (Lk.2:10-11)

Envision the situation of Mary, the Savior's mother, and her husband Joseph, His 'stepfather'. The surroundings of their engagement and marriage had been explosive. According to the Law, Joseph had to deliver his fiancée Mary to death by stoning, the punishment for sex outside of marriage.

The mRNA vaccines by Pfizer and Moderna require very low temperatures for their preservation, which epidemiologists say pose a challenge for tropical countries like India. As the mRNA technique involves the genetic code of humans, some critics have expressed their reservations about its long term implications.
- ✿ India became the second country in the world after the US to record nine million Covid-19 cases. However, its case doubling rate is shrinking, as it took 28 days for the numbers to go up from eight million to nine million, the second slowest in the world.
- ✿ The North East Monsoon began in Tamil Nadu, Puducherry and parts of Kerala, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh on October 28th, after a delay of eight days.

Being a just man, Joseph wanted to send her away quietly, but a dream from God Himself encouraged him to take her as his wife anyway (Mt.1:19-21).

What do you think would have created this life-saving divine intervention for Mary? Well, remember Mary's strong decision when the angel Gabriel brought to her the mind-boggling revelation that she would become pregnant by God's Spirit and be the mother of the Savior of the world (Lk.1:26-37)? See for yourself:

38 Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her (Lk.1:38)

Difficult times of hiding, questioning, public shame, maybe beatings would have followed as her pregnancy became more and more evident. What did Mary do? She strengthened her faith by fellowshiping with her elderly relative Elizabeth who also had just received a miracle from God (Lk.1:39-80).

Never forget: Without Mary's simple faith, tenacious boldness and deep dedication to God's will for her life, there would be no Christmas, no salvation for humanity!!!

So on this SPECIAL CHRISTMAS, please take time to once again double-check whether you have allowed your life to be 'according to His Word', as Mary did. Dedicate your life to His perfect will again. What a wonderful Christmas gift this will be in the dears of your Savior!

Was this dedication easy? Definitely not. When Mary was about to give birth, by government decree she had to undertake a tedious journey to be registered with her husband Joseph in his city. The only lodging they could find for the delivery was a stable full of animals! And yet, God's Presence made this humble place so glorious that humans wondered at the shining star, the bright angel, the glorious angel choir, the sophisticated visitors and the precious gifts brought to that simple abode. Oh yes, accommodating God's Presence brings unimaginable glory even to the most humble home (2.Sa.6:11).

Even after all these miraculous happenings, life was not easy. Repeatedly, the small family had to suddenly pack and shift their home at God's command. Obedience to God's clear guidance preserved the Living Word of God in the human body, just as it is today and always will be.

Perfect obedience to His earthly parents and diligent study of the heavenly Scriptures prepared even the very Son of God for His glorious, victorious, world-saving miracle ministry. Will you follow in His footsteps? Will you let YOUR LIGHT SHINE and bring JOY TO THE WORLD (Isa.60:1-2; Mt.5:14; Lk.2:10; Phil.2:13)?

On this SPECIAL CHRISTMAS, REJOICE and CELEBRATE more than ever before! SHINE your CHRISTMAS LIGHT into the darkness! LIVE GREAT JOY TO ALL PEOPLE!!!
